Roots-VII

Dear Dermatology Colleagues, Friends & Postgraduate Residents...

Welcome to “Roots -VII”, the most awaited Annual National Dermatology Conference in India, where knowledge meets innovation and expertise converges for a transformative experience in dermatological sciences. We extend a warm greeting to esteemed participants, distinguished researchers, and industry leaders to unravel the mysteries of skin health.

As you are all aware - ROOTS CONFERENCE is known for focused and maximum learning in dermatology, with value for money and maximum utilization of time for delegates to learn from the best of faculty dealing with the most appropriate scientific content with no wastage of time. Our theme for this year’s conference is “INNOVATE, INTEGRATE, INSPIRE – CLINICAL & THERAPEUTIC DERMATOLOGY”

We have crafted and curated a thought-provoking scientific program with very important topics related to CLINICAL and THERAPEUTIC DERMATOLOGY, which will be dealt in detail by well-known faculty, who are an authority in the respective field.

ROOTS conferences are a platform for dynamic dialogues and fostering connections that propel dermatology forward. This conference will provide a wealth of discussions spanning ground breaking clinical and therapeutic insights and newer drugs. This gathering promises a tapestry of diverse perspectives, from renowned keynote speakers to emerging voices shaping the future of dermatological care. Together, let us delve into the intricacies of dermatology, exchange knowledge, and forge a collective path towards healthier skin for all.

The conference is being organized at the state-of-the-art, NIMHANS CONVENTION CENTRE located in the heart of the city, enabling delegates to find affordable and suitable accommodation closer to the venue and will be convenient for all.

We have reduced conference registration significantly even at the growing cost of all essential commodities, especially in the early bird segment. Hence, request all to utilize this benefit and register at early bird tariff and save on registration costs.

We once again assure you meticulously planned, very well-organized conference with the best scientific content. You can count on us for unmatched hospitality and the best conferencing experience, with the highest quality in all aspects of conferencing and execution of conferences to its best with a united effort from a team known for organizing the best conferences.

Request you to kindly register early, help us to plan better and serve you in the best possible way.

Thanking you - Organizing Committee
